

The British Museum

The British Museum is a famous museum with free entry.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE 📢

The Queen lives in Buckingham Palace when she's in London. The Queen is often at the palace. You know she is there when the royal flag is flying. Tourists can visit parts of Buckingham Palace. You can also see the Changing of the Guard every day at 11.30 a.m.

Interiors

Big Ben

Next to the Houses of Parliament is the famous bell tower and clock, Big Ben. This dates back to the early 19th century. On New Year's Eve, Londoners wait for Big Ben to signal the beginning of the New Year.

London Zoo

This zoo has over 650 animal species. It has a reptile house, an aquarium and an insect house.

Madame Tussaud's

This famous wax museum is over 170 years old. The Beatles, Queen Elizabeth II, David Beckham, Luciano Pavarotti and Henry VIII are all there. It has models of over 400 famous people.

The Houses of Parliament

The Houses of Parliament are the centre of government. Politicians meet here and make important decisions for the country. You can go inside and listen to the debates.

The London Dungeons

This museum is under London Bridge. It has got a display of instruments of torture and execution.

Tate Modern

Tate Modern is a new gallery of modern art on the River Thames.

The London Eye

This wheel is 135 metres high. The wheel has 32 pods. The pods are glass. Each pod is for 15 people and each trip is 30 minutes.

Trafalgar Square

Trafalgar Square has got a statue of Lord Nelson. The National Gallery is also on this square.

Guided Tour of London

